

Meet Florence Nightingale

Jane McEldowney

Thursday, November 29, 2:00 p.m.
Bend Senior Center, 1600 SE Reed Market Road

“Called to Nursing” invites you to Meet Florence Nightingale:

- Listen to her background, struggles, and triumphs.
- Realize the many ways nursing today is the result of a determined lady answering her call.
- Hear why Miss Nightingale fought for a career for herself and for other women. She was a woman who dared to rebel. This heroine in history left us lessons for today.
- Learn how the concepts first used in Victorian days remain current for students, health care providers, health maintenance organizations, mathematicians, architects, feminists, educators, and religious groups.
- Hear her story “in person” as Jane McEldowney steps into the character of the famous Florence Nightingale.

Jane McEldowney, B.S.; R.N.; N.C.S.N., graduated from OHSU. Her adventures while living in seven of the many countries in which she has traveled include nursing in public health clinics, hospitals, embassies, schools, and camps. Jane is active in church, family life, Girl Scouts, American Red Cross, nature and professional nursing organizations and is a member of the Friends of the Florence Nightingale Museum, London.