Nine Participants Receive UO Certificates of Completion

PORTLAND – in 2006-07 nine (9) participants completed the requirements and received Certificates of Completion from the Sustainability Leadership Program. Among the recipients were three private individuals and employees of the following organizations:

Oregon Department of Forestry, Siltronic, Washington Department of Corrections, Washington County-Facilities, Waggener Edstrom Worldwide.

Eighteen (18) additional participants are currently working towards fulfilling the certificate requirements.

The Certificate of Completion is a professional development credential awarded to program participants who have attended workshops and participated in on-site activities to further their knowledge and expertise in the many aspects of sustainable development.

The University of Oregon is a comprehensive research university that serves its students and the people of Oregon, the nation, and the world through the creation and transfer of knowledge in the liberal arts, the natural and social sciences, and the professions. Founded in 1876, it is the Association of American Universities flagship institution of the Oregon University System.
