Field of Dreams

Is this Heaven? No, it’s Iowa. A place of fertile soil, traditional values and simple pleasure. And in Dyersville, Iowa, at the century-old Lansing family farm with its quaint, and oh so recognizable house, baseball still ranks as a favorite pastime for all ages. What better place to carve a baseball diamond from a corn field and to make a movie about pursuing one’s dream, no matter how much effort it takes?

Field of Dreams, released in 1989, is a movie that has inspired millions and became an Academy Award nominee for “Best Picture of the Year.” Welcome to this home, this farm, this baseball field, this little piece of heaven on earth. Welcome to this place where reality mixes with fantasy and dreams can come true.

The Field of Dreams is located in Dyersville Iowa, approximately 90 minutes northeast of Iowa City. The excursion takes you back in time by watching the movie along the scenic route, followed by a visit to one of the most memorable movie scenes in history. A picnic style dinner is included. We will provide a handful of gloves bats, and balls for those who wish to play ball amongst the ghosts of the 1919 Chicago White Sox. The family who owns the field and farm will be keeping it open late as a special treat for the AUA.

The "Field of Dreams” has gained world-renowned accolades not only as a film but also as a beloved tourist destination for young and old alike. A moment in time, a place in cinematic history, a mecca for anyone longing to be a part of something greater than themselves, inching toward a destiny that has no limits, What could be more inspiring?
