Common Core Whisperers:
What Educators Are Doing to Link Standards from High School through College

Friday, November 21, 2014
National Harbor, MD / Washington, DC

Andy Anderson, Johnson County Community College (Overland Park, KS)
Amy Magnafichi Lucus, Illinois Central College (East Peoria)
Kimberly N. Parker, Cambridge Rindge and Latin School (Cambridge, MA)
R. Joseph Rodríguez, The University of Texas at El Paso
Agenda

I. Welcome
II. Introductions
III. Sharing: Think-Pair Share
IV. Using Common Core Language: Video I
V. Panelists’ Remarks
VI. Sharing: Small-Group Discussion
VII. Socratic Seminar: Video II (excerpt)
VIII. Sharing: Questions and Ideas
IX. Contact
X. Adjournment
1. Think about a standard you support in English language arts and that you’ve taught to students.

2. How did your students respond to the standard?

3. Turn to your NCTE colleague and share your knowledge.
Video

- Teaching Channel’s Inside Common Core Classrooms Series

  Teaching Channel’s Using Common Core Language (2014) with Teacher Esther Wu and Students

  [1 min., 35 seconds]

Small Group Sharing

Share some of the observations made in Ms. Wu’s classroom. How does she engage students in English language arts through some of the concepts advanced in the Common Core State Standards?
Video (excerpt)

- Teaching Channel’s Inside Common Core Classrooms Series

  Socratic Seminars: Patience and Practice (2014) with Teacher Paige Price and Students

Questions and Ideas

Share some of the observations made in Ms. Price’s classroom on the Socratic method and how students activate their own thinking about literature and language.
References

The world is a better place because of you! Love, Todd
Contact

- Andy Anderson
  aanders@jccc.edu

- Amy Magnafichi Lucus
  amagnafichi@gmail.com

- Kimberly Parker
  kimpossible97@gmail.com

- R. Joseph Rodríguez
  rjrodriguez6@utep.edu